

We keep the Automotive Industry running: dynamically, efficiently and innovatively

Modix has been on the market for over 20 years and is the Europe-wide leader in solutions for vehicle sales.

We are part of the US-based Cox Group and can rely on the network and possibilities of an international enterprise and combine this with the flexibility and individual support of a company under owner management.

Become a part of our team HR Business Partner (m/f/d)

As HR Business Partner (m/f/d) you will take over the future-oriented design of the international HR work within Modix GmbH at the Koblenz office.

This is where you work!

- You work together with three other HR colleagues in our Modix headquarter in Koblenz, but you are part of the international HR team at Cox Automotive Europe based in the UK.
- Your ideas, concepts and HR measures will be used in all business units worldwide.
- The HR team sees itself as an internal service provider along the entire employee life cycle.
- We think HR in a contemporary way and act proactively as a business partner.
- Our view of people is characterized by a positive and appreciative attitude.

This is what you do!

- You act as a central contact for managers and employees and advise them on all HR-related issues - also for our other locations in Belgium, Italy, Spain, France and China.
- Together with the management you identify HR-relevant fields of action and accompany change processes.
- You work in an international HR team and implement global HR projects and processes in your area of responsibility.
- You bring HR concepts and tools to our foreign subsidiaries and support our country managers in case of questions and problems.
- You ensure a trusting and result-oriented cooperation with the works council.
- You contribute to ensure that the Cox corporate values are lived in your area of responsibility. The most important principle is: "Do the right thing and do it always."

These are your abilities!

- 3-5 years of professional experience in the HR department of an internationally operating company, ideally from the software industry
- Experience in working with works councils
- Very good German and English writing and verbal communication skills
- A good feeling for people and high level of social communicative skills
- Ability to build strong relationships at all levels of a diverse employee population

- Ability to work under pressure, be decisive and assertive
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment with multiple work streams

This is what we offer!

- Personal development and regular trainings
- Chances of promotion in an innovative company
- Trust-based working hours
- Optimal Equipment
- Regularly held employee events
- Free parking
- Pioneer spirit and joy on the job in a technology-minded team
